I. INTRODUCTION

1. Scope of application:

- 1.1. According to the Law on Markets in Financial Instrument of the Republic of Lithuania the operator of the regulated market can operate a multilateral trading facility. The operator of the regulated market shall when operating a multilateral trading facility have in place appropriate rules for trading.
- 1.2. The operator of the regulated market AB Nasdaq Vilnius (the “Exchange”) administrates First North Foreign Financial Instruments Trading List (the “Trading List”) under the multilateral trading facility First North Market. The Rules for the Trading List administered by the Exchange (hereinafter the “Rules”) shall lay down the following:
  - 1.2.1. Criteria which are used to determine which financial instruments may be traded on the multilateral trading facility;
  - 1.2.2. Rules governing transactions on the multilateral trading facility;
  - 1.2.3. Member’s obligations vis-à-vis the party operating the multilateral trading facility;
  - 1.2.4. Forms for clearing and settlement of executed transactions;
  - 1.2.5. Supervision and liability;
  - 1.2.6. Other provisions connected with the assurance of the fair and smooth trading in the issuer’s financial instruments admitted to trading.
- 1.3. Through these Rules the Exchange fulfils the requirements set out in law for admitting financial instruments admitted to trading on a regulated market or a multilateral trading facility within the European Economic Area (the “EEA”) to trading on the Trading List based on an application of another party than the issuer of the financial instruments. The admission of financial instruments to trading on the Trading List will be based on the sole discretion of the Exchange.
- 1.4. Legal grounds of these Rules: Article 22 of the Law on Markets in Financial Instruments of the Republic of Lithuania. The Rules shall be drafted and approved by the Exchange. The Exchange shall, according to legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania, supervise the adherence to the Rules. The structure and main requirements of these Rules, to the maximum extent possible, have been harmonised with the requirements of the other Nasdaq Nordic exchanges.
- 1.5. The Exchange shall have the right to amend and/or supplement the provisions of these Rules at its own discretion. The Rules and any amendments and/or supplements hereto shall become effective after their publication on the website of the Exchange, except in cases where a different effective date is set.
- 1.6. The Exchange, to ensure that these Rules are appropriately implemented and that their provisions are applied and interpreted equally, shall have the right to issue decisions, instructions, recommendations and/or explanations.

2. Terms of the Rules:

- 2.1. The following terms shall be used in these Rules:
  - 2.1.1. First North Foreign Financial Instruments Trading List or Trading List shall mean the multilateral trading facility not having the regulated market status and administered by the Exchange, as defined in the Law on Markets in Financial Instruments of the Republic of Lithuania and other legal acts.
  - 2.1.2. Foreign Financial Instruments shall refer to financial instruments, such as shares and (or) debt securities (bonds), admitted to trading on a regulated market or a multilateral trading facility within the EEA, where the issuers have applied for admission to listing and (or) trading, other than regulated markets and (or) multilateral trading facilities administered by the Exchange, Nasdaq Tallinn AS and Nasdaq Riga AS.
  - 2.1.3. Nasdaq Information disclosure system shall mean electronic systems consisting of hardware, software and communications equipment and intended, according to the procedure prescribed by legal acts, for the dissemination of information about issuers and the financial instruments issued by them and for the publishing of decisions adopted by the Exchange and other information connected with trade in financial instruments.

- 2.1.4. Admission to trading shall mean the admission of Foreign Financial Instruments to trading on the Trading List and the trading in them in the Exchange trading system.
- 2.1.5. Issuer shall mean a person whose securities are admitted to trading on a regulated market or a multilateral trading facility within the EEA.
- 2.1.6. Trading system shall mean the electronic system consisting of hardware, software and communications equipment and intended for trading in financial instruments.
- 2.1.7. The Bank of Lithuania shall mean the financial market supervisory authority of the Republic of Lithuania.
- 2.2. All the other terms used in these Rules shall have the meanings envisaged for them in the Law on Markets in Financial Instruments of the Republic of Lithuania, the Law on Securities of the Republic of Lithuania, the Nasdaq Baltic Membership Rules and other legal acts.
