Financial analysis

Akciju Sabiedrība ELKO Grupa consolidated turnover during the 9 months of 2024 reached USD 772.5m (EUR 710.6m), which is a 8.96% decrease over the corresponding period in 2023, which is largely explained by the suboptimal performance of Q1 2024: divesting of Ukrainian operations in February 2023, stoppage of sales to almost all non-EU customers in order to minimize risks associated with potential breach of international sanctions as well as overall slowdown of market. Gross profit reached USD 57.7m (EUR 53.1m) which is practically the same as during 9 months period in 2023.

Q3 was in line with our expectations, achieving moderate growth year on year overall with some positive outliers. Nordic region continued strong performance responding to focused investment in recent partnerships with leading vendors in consumer electronics space, and there is even stronger growth potential ahead. Personal computing and component business remained stable in revenue, with increasing inventory buildup in anticipation of market recovery through the 4th quarter. There was also solid increase in solutions business in several geographies and notable recovery in power segment. For remaining 2024 the key focus is on personal computing segment to ensure the balance between high vendor expectations and actual change in consumer sentiment.

Prospects

The Company's performance is and will be influenced by macroeconomic, competitive and political factors and the development of markets where the Company has cooperation partners. The key factors driving the Company's growth were a significant product portfolio expansion and adding new distribution areas to existing distribution agreements during the year.

In light of given market risks, management has assigned priority to the continuous management of working capital.

Management report (cont'd)

Financial risk management

Multi-currency risk

The Company operates internationally and is exposed to foreign exchange risks, primarily from the US dollar, euro, Romanian lei and Swedish krona. Foreign exchange risks arise from future multi-currency transactions and the recognition of assets, liabilities and long-term investments in various currencies.

The purchase of goods is predominantly in US dollars, but sales are conducted in different currencies. In the CIS region, the main currency is the US dollar, but in the Baltics, trade is conducted in euros. CEE countries Slovakia and Slovenia trade in euros, but Romania in its national currency – the Romanian lei. In the Nordic region, most sales are transacted in Swedish krona.

The Company has shareholdings in foreign currencies and is therefore exposed to foreign currency risk when financial assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the presentation currency – the US dollar.

Currency risk is actively mitigated by using different tools. The Company has centrally developed and globally applied currency risk management policies and procedures.

Interest-rate risk

The Company utilises short-term borrowing for the partial financing of its current assets. All borrowings are at floating rates, thus exposing the Company to interest rate risks.

Credit risk

Credit risks arise from credit exposure to outstanding trade receivables. The Company has implemented procedures and control mechanisms to manage credit risks. Credit risk is partly minimised through credit risk insurance, but mainly, the risk is minimised by internally developed conservative credit-monitoring policies. Individual risk limits are set based on internal or external ratings in accordance with the credit policy. The utilisation of credit limits is regularly monitored.

Inventories

The Company determines the amount of inventories based on expected future demand and market saturation. Any changes in demand and/or rapid obsolescence of products or technological changes will result in excess stock and the accumulation of obsolete items. The Company makes centralised plans for the purchase and sale of products. Furthermore, upgrading the procedure for placing orders has helped decrease inventory days. Weekly inventory analysis minimises the need to establish provisions for obsolete items.

The risk related to product flow management is partially reduced through price-protection arrangements under the cooperation agreements with major vendors. The agreements provide the rights to claim compensation on pre-ordered goods in the warehouse in cases of a price reduction or decline in market prices.

Liquidity risk

Prudent liquidity-risk management includes maintaining sufficient cash and the availability of funding from a sufficient number of committed credit facilities. In the future, the Company's management plans to increase the liquidity reserve based on the expected cash flows by improving working capital management.

Events after the balance sheet date

There have been no subsequent events after the last date of the reporting period that would have a significant effect on the Company's financial position as of 30 September 2024.
