“What are the key risks that are specific to the issuer?”

Credit Risk. Credit risk arises most significantly from the core business line of the Group – lending to retail and corporate customers. Credit risk may be adversely affected by circumstances beyond the Group’s control, such as adverse events in the general economic, political or regulatory environment or a decrease in the value of collateral provided in order to secure the credit granted by the Group’s companies. Credit risk includes concentration risk, which is a risk arising from overall spread of outstanding accounts over the number and variety of clients i.e., from having a large exposure to one client or group of clients. Credit risk also includes collateral risk, which is the risk that collateral securing the loans offered by the Group may lose its value or regulations regarding realisation of collateral may change in unfavourable direction for the Group.

Market Risk. Market risk is the risk of potential loss which may arise from unfavourable changes in foreign exchange rates, prices of securities or interest rates. Market risk primarily stems from the Group’s banking and non-banking book’s sensitivity to interest rate and foreign currency moves, as well as from borrowing activities and other means of taking in financial resources. The Group is exposed to the following types of market risk: foreign currency risk, price risk and interest rate risk.

Liquidity Risk. Liquidity risk relates to the ability of the Group to meet its contractual obligations on time without incurring material losses or disrupting its normal business operations. The Group relies on deposits from retail and corporate customers in order to service its liquidity needs. Liquidity risk primarily arises from the difference between the assets (loans provided to the clients) and the liabilities (deposits) and is mainly related to LHV Bank.

Funding Risk. The Group’s business and ability to duly fulfil its obligations is reliant on its ability to finance its current operations at reasonable terms. Access to, and the cost of, financing raised by the Group’s companies through the money and capital markets are affected, among other things, by general interest rate levels, the situation on the financial markets, or a downturn in the performance of market participants and the Group companies’ own capital adequacy and credit rating. Despite improvements of the conditions on the capital markets and the global economic environment over the past year, uncertainties remain and the Group may find it difficult to receive funding in the international financial markets on favourable terms

Operational Risk. Operational risk is a risk of loss resulting from inadequate or failed internal processes, people, and systems or from external events. Operational risk includes legal risk, operational resilience, information and communications technology risk but excludes strategic risk and reputational risk. Operational risk is inherent in all products, activities, processes, and systems.

Strategic Risk. Strategic risk is the risk of losses, including in the form of foregone revenues or additional costs including restructuring costs or assets write-offs, due to mis-assessment of or changes in the Group’s external environment, to which the Group does not timely and appropriately adapt to. The relevant factors within the external environment include the competitive landscape, technological shifts, customer preferences, changes in regulation, and industry and product profitability.

Solvency risk. Solvency risk is the risk of not having sufficient capital to absorb losses, including the risk of not having sufficient capital to meet the regulatory minimum requirements. Credit institutions and investment firms must adhere to strict capital adequacy requirements subject to frequent reforms and changes. Such changes, either individually or in combination, may lead to unexpected increased requirements and have a material adverse effect on the business of LHV Pank and the Group as a whole.

Compliance Risks. Compliance risk is the existing and potential risk to income, capital, and reputation due to noncompliance or violation of legislation, guidelines, standards or ethical principles. Compliance risk can manifest in the form of fines, claims for damages, termination of contractual relations, and in extreme cases withdrawal of operating licenses.

Country risk. Country risk is the risk of suffering losses caused by events associated with a specific sovereign jurisdiction, rather than due to reasons related to a specific counterparty. Selected subcategories of country risk include transfer and convertibility risk, political risk, macroeconomic and sovereign risk. Distinction is made between cross-border country risk and domestic country risk.

Exposure to Regulatory Actions and Investigations. The Group offers financial services and products and is therefore subject to extensive and comprehensive regulations imposed both through local Estonian and UK as well as through European legal acts. Any determination by the authorities regarding the incompliance with all the applicable laws and regulations may have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, and results of operations.

3. KEY INFORMATION ON THE SECURITIES

“What are the main features of the securities?”

The Bonds are subordinated bonds with the nominal value of EUR 1,000. The Bonds represent a direct, unsecured and subordinated debt obligation of the Company before the bondholder. The Bonds are in dematerialised book-entry form and are not numbered. The Bonds are registered in the Estonian Register of Securities (the ERS) under ISIN code EE3300004993.

The rights attached to the Bonds have been established by the terms and conditions of the Bonds (the Bond Terms). The main rights of bondholders arising from the Bonds and the Bond Terms are the right to the redemption of the Bonds and the right to receive payment of interest. Bondholders can exercise their rights in accordance with the Bond Terms of the Bonds and applicable law.

Interest and yield. Bonds carry an annual coupon interest at the fixed rate of 6 per cent., calculated from the Issue Date of the Bonds until the date of redemption. Interest payments are made quarterly on 15 February, 15 May, 15 August and 15 November in each year. The interest on the Bonds is calculated based on the 30-day calendar month and 360-day calendar year (30/360).

Maturity of Bonds. Bonds are issued with a maturity of 10 years with the maturity date on 15 November 2034. According to the Bond Terms, the Company is entitled to redeem the Bonds prematurely at any time after the lapse of 5 years as from the date of issue by notifying the bondholders at least 30 days in advance. The Company is further entitled to redeem the Bonds prematurely before the lapse of the 5-year term if there is a change in the regulative classification of the Bonds resulting in the Bonds being, in the opinion of the Company, excluded from the classification as own funds of a credit institution or if there is a significant change in the taxation regime applicable in respect of the Bonds, provided that the Company was not in a position to foresee such changes upon the issue of the Bonds.

The Bonds may be redeemed prematurely by the Company on the above-described grounds only if the European Central Bank or such other competent authority has granted its consent to the early redemption. The bondholders are not entitled to claim early redemption of the Bonds under any circumstances.

Ranking and subordination. The Bonds are intended to qualify as own funds instruments within the meaning of point 119 of Article 4(1) of the CRR in the form of Tier 2 instruments as defined in Article 63 of the CRR.

In the event of the (a) voluntary or involuntary liquidation or (b) bankruptcy of the Company, the rights of the bondholders under the Bonds to payments on or in respect of the Bonds shall rank as follows:

- (i) junior to any present or future claims of (A) unsecured and unsubordinated creditors of the Company (including holders of senior preferred notes and the senior non-preferred notes, if any, issued by the Company), and (B) holders of senior subordinated notes and claims of any other subordinated creditors the claims of which rank, or are expressed to rank, in priority to the Bonds;

- (ii) pari passu among themselves and with any other present or future indebtedness of the Company which constitutes Tier 2 capital (as defined in Article 71 of the CRR);
- (iii) in priority to claims of holders of any outstanding Additional Tier 1 instruments (as defined in Article 52 of the CRR), and payments to holders of all classes of share capital of the Company in their capacity as such holders, and claims of any other subordinated creditors the claims of which rank, or are expressed to rank, junior to the Bonds, subject, in all cases, to mandatory provisions of the Estonian law.

The subordination of the Bonds means that upon the liquidation or bankruptcy of the Company, all the claims arising from the Bonds shall fall due in accordance with the Bond Terms and shall be satisfied only after the full satisfaction of all unsubordinated recognised claims against the Company in accordance with the applicable law.

Furthermore, any liability arising under the Bonds may be subject to the exercise of powers to write-down, conversion, transfer, modification, suspension or similar related power existing from time to time under, and exercised in compliance with, any laws, regulations, rules or requirements in effect in the Republic of Estonia (the Bail-In and Loss Absorption Powers) by the European Single Resolution Board, the EFSA, or such other resolution authority or governmental body with the ability to exercise any Bail-in and Loss Absorption Powers in relation to the Company (the Resolution Authority) in cases where the Company or any Group company meets the conditions for the initiation of resolution proceedings (i.e., fails or is likely to fail and certain other conditions are met). Exercising the Bail-in and Loss Absorption Powers is subject to numerous preconditions and will only be used as a last resort; however, if the powers are exercised, it is possible that: (a) the amount outstanding of the Bonds is reduced, including to zero; (b) the Bonds are converted into shares, other securities or other instruments of the Company or another person; (c) the Bonds or the outstanding amounts of the Bonds are cancelled; and/or (d) the Bond Terms are altered (e.g., the maturity date or interest rate of the Bonds could be changed). Therefore, if the Company as a resolution entity meets the conditions for the initiation of resolution, the exercising of the Bail-in and Loss Absorption Powers by the Resolution Authority may result in material losses for the bondholders. Financial public support will only be used as a last resort after having assessed and exploited, to the maximum extent practicable, the resolution tools, including the bail-in tool. Consent of the bondholders is not necessary for affecting bail-in measures by the Resolution Authority.

Transferability. The Bonds are freely transferable; however, any bondholder wishing to transfer the Bonds must ensure that any offering related to such a transfer would not be qualified as requiring the publication of a prospectus in accordance with the applicable law. According to the Bond Terms, ensuring that any offering of the Bonds does not require the publication of a prospectus in accordance with the applicable law is the obligation and liability of the bondholder.

“Where will the securities be traded?”

The Company intends to apply for the listing and admission to trading of the Bonds on the Baltic Bond List of the Nasdaq Tallinn Stock Exchange. The expected date of listing and the admission to trading of the Bonds is on or about 18 November 2024.

“What are the key risks that are specific to the securities?”

- Credit Risk. An investment into the Bonds is subject to credit risk, which means that the Company may fail to meet its obligations arising from the Bonds in a duly and timely manner.
- Subordination Risk. The Bonds are subordinated to all unsubordinated claims against the Company. This means that in the event of insolvency of the Company, all claims ranking senior to the claims under the Bonds will be satisfied ahead of the claims of the bondholders under the Bonds, and bondholders may lose all or some of their investment.
- Bail-in Risk. Any liability arising under the Bonds may be subject to the exercise of the Bail-in and Loss Absorption Powers by the relevant Resolution Authority, which may result in material losses for the bondholders. If such powers are exercised, it is possible that: (a) the amount outstanding of the Bonds is reduced, including to zero; (b) the Bonds are converted into shares, other securities or other instruments of the Company or another person; (c) the Bonds are cancelled; and/or (d) the Bond Terms are altered (e.g., the maturity date or interest rate of the Bonds could be changed).
- Bond Price and Limited Liquidity of Bonds. Although every effort will be made by the Company to ensure the listing of the Bonds as part of the Offering, no assurance can be provided that the Bonds will be listed and admitted to trading. The Company may also determine that not all series of the Bonds will be applied for the listing. No active secondary market in respect of unlisted Bonds may be established. And even if the Bonds are admitted to trading, the liquidity of the Bonds may remain low which may impair the ability of the bondholders to sell their Bonds on the open market, or sell them at the expected price or amount.
