

Tomas Thyblad

VP Head of Financial Risks and
Treasury Services EMEA – APAC

After completing his studies at Stockholm University, Tomas began his career at Sveriges Riksbank. Beginning as an economist/analyst, Tomas rose through the ranks during his size years at the central bank and would eventually be a direct manager to over a dozen employees while being responsible for the implementation of monetary policy. Tomas would go on to hold the titles of Portfolio Manager, Head of Market Operations / Chief Dealer and eventually become the Head of Market Operation and Reserve Management Division at Sveriges Riksbank.

Back in 2002, Tomas started at NASDAQ – Beginning as a business analyst and bid manager at OMX Technology before moving over to OMX Treasury in the role of Deputy Group Treasurer. While working for NASDAQ OMX Treasury for six years, Tomas was the Vice President and Treasurer for the Non-US entities where he was responsible treasury operations. Continuing as a Vice President, this time for Nasdaq Clearing, Tomas was also the Chief Risk Officer between 2015 and 2016 where is oversaw the risk management department while simultaneously acting as the Chairman of the Clearing Risk Committee and Default Committee. For the coming 3 years, 2016 to 2019 Tomas moved to Nasdaq Treasury and became the Head of Financial Risks and Treasury Operation in EMEA / APAC. Tomas transferred back to Nasdaq Clearing in 2019 to be interim Head of Clearing Risk and take the responsibility as Programme Director for the Risk Management Enhancement Programme.

As of April 2020, Tomas is the Vice President and Head of ESG Solutions, European Markets for Nasdaq, where he is responsible for coordination of initiatives and the tactical and strategic work around offerings in the Environmental, Social, and Governance area. He also serves as Director of the Board of Nasdaq Clearing as well as Council member in the Supervisory Council in the Baltic Exchanges.