

Tomas Thyblad

VP Head of Financial Risks and
Treasury Services EMEA – APAC

After completing his studies at Stockholm University, Tomas began his career at Sveriges Riksbank. Beginning as an economist/analyst, Tomas rose through the ranks during his six years at the company and would eventually be a direct manager to over a dozen employees while being responsible for the implementations of monetary policy. Tomas would go on to hold the titles of Portfolio Manager, Head of Market Operation Division/Chief Dealer and eventually become the Head of Market Operation and Reserve Management Division while at Sveriges Riksbank.

Back in 2002, Tomas began his NASDAQ career - Beginning as a business analyst and bid manager, Tomas worked at OMX Technology before moving over to OMX Treasury in the role of Deputy Group Treasurer. While working for NASDAQ OMX Treasury for six years, Tomas was the Vice President and Treasurer for the Non-US entities where he was responsible for the treasury operations. Continuing as a Vice President, this time for NASDAQ Clearing, Tomas was also the Chief Risk Officer where he oversaw the risk management department, while simultaneously acting as the Chairman of the Clearing Risk and Clearing Default Committees.

As of May 2018, Tomas is the Vice President and Head of Financial Risks and Treasury Services for NASDAQ, where he has the overall responsibility for the risk management department within Nasdaq Clearing AB and responsibility for the Treasury Service EMEA / APAC department.