I GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Scope of application

- 1.1. These rules of a multilateral trading facility (hereinafter: the MTF) operated by Nasdaq Tallinn AS (hereinafter: the Exchange and also Nasdaq Tallinn) (hereinafter: the Rules), set out the requirements and procedure for admission to trading of financial instruments on the MTF operated by the Exchange (hereinafter: First North), the requirements for financial instruments admitted to and submitted for admission to trading on First North and the requirements for Issuers and their Certified Advisers.

The securities admitted to trading and their Issuers as well as Certified Advisers shall comply to the laws applicable to them, these Rules and their articles of association throughout their whole trading time or time acting as Certified Adviser.

In addition to the regulation set forth in these Rules, the Rules of the Exchange/regulated market (hereinafter: Rules of the Exchange) shall be applied to the procedural questions of admission to trading of financial instruments on First North.

As First North is also a joint name for the multilateral trading facilities offered by Nasdaq Nordic and Baltic market operators (in Sweden, Finland, Denmark, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania), these other MTF's are hereinafter referred to as „other First North markets“, or „Baltic First North markets“, respectively.

- 1.2. These Rules shall also provide the basis and conditions for trading and clearing and settlement of financial instruments on First North.
- 1.3. These Rules shall also provide the basis, conditions and procedure for suspending trading in financial instruments, termination of trading and surveillance activities, including sanctions and other matters connected with ensuring secure and transparent trading with the financial instruments admitted to trading on First North.
- 1.4. The Exchange shall establish and apply the Rules in accordance with laws to ensure the lawful operation of MTF.

The Rules shall be established and amended by the Management Board of the Exchange. The Exchange has a right to unilaterally amend the Rules. The provisions of law regarding unreasonably harmful standard conditions shall not apply with respect to the Rules.

The amendments to the Rules shall enter into force as from the moment of their publication of the web page of Exchange, unless the latter date has been provided in the amendments.

The Management Board of the Exchange has a right to impose guidelines, explanations, recommendations, and other criteria (hereinafter: The Other Rules) for the purpose of implementing, clarifying or specifying the Rules, which shall enter into force as from the moment of their publication of the web page of Exchange, unless the latter date has been provided in the decision of the Management Board.

2. Definitions used in the Rules

- 2.1. For the purpose of these Rules, definitions used herein, which are not otherwise defined within the text are understood as follows:
- 2.1.1. Admission to trading - the inclusion of financial instruments on the First North and trading with them in the trading system of the Exchange.
Supplemental admission to trading – admission to trading of the financial instruments of the same type or debt instruments under the same program admitted to trading on First North.
 - 2.1.2. Certified Adviser – a legal entity that complies with the requirements set forth in these Rules and has concluded an agreement with the Exchange to assist Issuers and operate as a Certified Adviser on First North.
 - 2.1.3. FSA – Financial Supervisory Authority

7. Publication of Prospectus or Company Description and Financial Reports

- 7.1. The Exchange shall publish the Prospectus or Company Description or Securities Note and Financial Reports submitted under these Rules and also the decision on admission to trading (Admission Decision) via its Information System immediately after the Listing Body has passed the Admission Decision, however, in any event not later than three (3) business days before the first trading day with the relevant financial instruments, unless prescribed otherwise by law.

- 7.2. After submitting the Application to the Exchange, the Issuer shall inform the Exchange, without delay, about any circumstances that have occurred during the Admission Procedure or examination of the Application if such circumstances may affect the price of the financial instruments or an investor's decision regarding performing transactions with the financial instruments.
- 7.3. The Issuer shall inform the Exchange, without delay, about any circumstances that have occurred during the period between publishing the prospectus or Company Description or Securities Note and Admission to Trading on the First North if these circumstances may affect the price of the issued financial instruments and the interests of investors (hereinafter: material events). The Issuer has the obligation to describe all these events in the supplement to the prospectus or Company Description or Securities Note.
- 7.4. The Exchange shall immediately publish the information received from the Issuer in cases mentioned in clauses 7.2. and 7.3. via Information System of the Exchange.

8. Procedure of Admission to Trading

- 8.1. The purpose of the procedure of admission to trading (hereinafter: Admission Procedure) is to determine the eligibility of the financial instruments for trading on First North.
- 8.2. The decision on admission to trading on First North (Admission Decision) shall be adopted by the Listing Body.
- 8.3. The Admission Procedure starts as of the moment when the Issuer has submitted to the Exchange the Application.
- 8.4. The Exchange has the right to disclose information regarding the initiation of the Admission Procedure by the Information system of the Exchange.
- 8.5. The Exchange has the right to oblige the Issuer to adhere to the provisions of the Rules during the Admission Procedure either partially or fully.
- 8.6. The Admission Procedure shall terminate:
 - 8.6.1. upon adopting a decision to admit financial instruments to trading (Admission Decision); or
 - 8.6.2. upon adopting a decision to refuse to admit financial instruments to trading; or
 - 8.6.3. upon withdrawal of the Application by the Issuer; or
 - 8.6.4. upon considering the Application rejected on the basis of clause 9.2. of these Rules.
- 8.7. As of the starting of the Admission Procedure the Issuer shall pay the fees stipulated in Price List to the Exchange.

9. Admission Decision

- 9.1. The Listing Body shall make a decision regarding the admission of or the refusal to admit financial instruments to trading within one (1) month after the start of the Admission Procedure, unless otherwise provided by law. If the Exchange requires submission of additional information or supplementary documents from the Issuer or the Certified Adviser in the course of the Application Procedure, the Listing Body shall make an Admission Decision within fifteen (15) business days after submission of all the required information and documents, but not later than within three (3) months after the start of the Admission Procedure, unless the law prescribes a shorter term.
- 9.2. If the Issuer does not disclose the information or documents required by the Exchange within the terms specified in clause 9.1. and due to that the Listing Body does not make the decision within the terms referred to in Clause 9.1., the Application shall be considered as rejected.
- 9.3. Unless the Listing Body decides otherwise, the first trading day of the financial instruments admitted to trading shall be the sixth (6th) trading day after the issuance of the Admission Decision day.
- 9.4. In the Admission Decision or refusal the Listing Body shall indicate the provisions and requirements referred to in these Rules pursuant to which the decision has been adopted.
- 9.5. The Listing Body has the right to refuse to admit the Issuer's financial instruments to trading, if the Issuer's financial position, market position, client structure, growth potential, field of operation, economic activities, management, reputation, future plans and other significant matters that according to Listing Body would harm the interest of investors, orderly functioning of the market or damage the reputation of First North or the Exchange.
- 9.6. If the Listing Body has decided not to satisfy the Issuer's application for supplemental admission of financial instruments to trading, it has the right to terminate the trading of all the Issuer's financial instruments of the same type on the basis of clause 3.3. of these Rules.

10. Agreement for Admission of Financial Instruments to Trading

Within five (5) business days after the adoption of the initial Admission Decision of the financial instruments, the Issuer is obliged to conclude a written agreement with the Exchange for admission of the financial instruments to trading (hereinafter the Trading Agreement), which shall provide the duty of the Issuer to adhere to the provisions of these Rules and pay fees according to the Price List. The Exchange does not start trading in the Issuer's financial instruments unless the Trading Agreement has been concluded.

11. Disclosure of the Admission Decision or Refusal thereof

- 11.1. A written notice of the decision of the Listing Body regarding admission to trading of financial instruments of the Issuer or the refusal thereof shall be disclosed to the Issuer and the FSA without delay. The Exchange has the right to publish information concerning the decision on its website.

- 11.2. If the Listing Body has refused to admit the Issuer's financial instruments to trading, the written notice concerning the decision shall also include the reasons for such refusal.

12. Appeal of the Admission Decision of or Refusal thereof

If the Issuer is not satisfied with the Decision of the Listing Body or if the Listing Body hasn't adopted a Decision within the term provided in clause 9.1, the Issuer has the right to appeal the Decision of the Listing Body and to refer the dispute to the Arbitration Court of the Exchange (hereinafter – the Arbitration Court) for settlement. Such appeal shall be brought within thirty (30) days from the day on which the Issuer received the respective resolution or the expiry of the term provided in clause 9.1. of these Rules.

III TERMINATION AND SUSPENSION OF TRADING BY INITIATIVE OF THE ISSUER

13. Suspension of Trading

- 13.1. The Issuer has the right to submit to the Exchange a written application for the temporary suspension of trading in its securities. The suspension of trading will be applicable upon the terms and conditions set out in the part of the Rules of the Exchange „Listing Rules“.

14. Termination of Trading

- 14.1. The Exchange has the right to terminate the trading with financial instruments of Issuer upon written application of the Issuer, unless otherwise provided in these Rules.
- 14.2. The Listing Body has the right to decline the application, if the Listing Body finds that the termination of trading would materially harm (jeopardise) the interests of investors or give a part of the holders of the financial instruments an unfair advantage over the other holders or on their account or allow for unfair profit for a part of the holders of the financial instruments or other profit over or on account of the other holders.
- 14.3. The Listing Body shall make a decision regarding the approval or rejection of the application for the termination of trading within one (1) month from the day of submitting the relevant application. If the Exchange requests additional information from the Issuer during the course of processing the Application or if a surveillance case has been initiated or some other significant circumstances related to the Issuer are in process, the Listing Body shall make a decision within three (3) months after the submission of all the additional information by the Issuer or the closing of the surveillance proceedings or disclosure of other significant circumstances related to the Issuer, but no later than within three (3) months after the submission of the application for termination of trading.
- 14.4. If the Listing Body fails to make a decision within these three (3) months, the application for the termination of trading shall be considered as rejected.

15. Termination of Trading in Shares

- 15.1. The decision on termination of trading with shares from First North shall be taken by the Issuer's general meeting of shareholders. If the Issuer is planning to include the decision on termination of trading to the agenda of the general meeting, the Issuer shall to immediately publish its intention in accordance with the terms and procedure set forth in these Rules.

16. Sequencing corrected.

17. Termination of Trading in Debt Securities

- 17.1. If debt securities are redeemed according to the terms and conditions provided in the Company Description or Prospectus or Securities Note, the trading in such securities shall be terminated at redemption. In this case separate application will not be submitted and separate decision will not be made.

Trading in such Debt Securities shall be suspended at the end of the Trading Hours, three (3) business days* before the record date. For the purposes of this clause 17, business days (settlement cycle days) are understood in accordance with the meaning set out in Issuer's depository rules as days when the settlement takes place (settlement days).

- 17.2. Record date is a date of closing the list of the holders of securities (fixing the record date) who are entitled to exercise the rights attached to the securities. For the purposes of Clause 17.1 the record date is a date when the list of debt securities holders who are entitled to participate in the redemption, is fixed.

For redemption of debt securities the record date shall be set at least one (1) business day before the payment date (redemption/maturity date) unless the Prospectus, Company Description or Securities Note specify an earlier date.

- 17.3. If debt securities are redeemed on the terms and conditions other than provided in the documents referred to above in clause 17.1, the trading in such securities shall be terminated under general procedure and upon the decision of the Listing Body set out in the clause 14.

IV CERTIFIED ADVISER

18. Requirements for the Certified Adviser

- 18.1. The requirements set forth in this section constitute minimum requirements for granting the status to operate as a Certified Adviser on First North.  - 19.7.5. inform the Exchange immediately regarding any and all violations of these Rules by the Issuer, requesting, if necessary, explanations from the Issuer and notify the Exchange of any such violations without delay;
 - 19.7.6. appoint a contact person to be available to the Exchange and the Issuer who can provide requested assistance, information or documents, where necessary.

20. An Agreement by and between the Certified Adviser and the Issuer

- 20.1. The Certified Adviser and the Issuer shall conclude a written agreement under which the Certified Adviser shall provide its services to the Issuer. The agreement shall contain at least the minimum information specified by Exchange.
- 20.2. The detailed division of the duties and obligations between the Certified Adviser and the Issuer may be stipulated in the written agreement, but nevertheless each party shall remain responsible for requirements set forth herein which apply to them.
- 20.3. The Certified Adviser shall provide the Issuer with three (3) months' notice of termination the agreement specified in clause 20.1. The Issuer and the Certified Adviser shall immediately forward the notice regarding termination of the agreement to the Exchange. In the event of breach of the agreement or termination of the agreement due to breach, all notices of one party to another shall immediately be forwarded to the Exchange by the notifying party. The Exchange shall immediately publish such information through the Information system of the Exchange.

21. The Information to be provided to the Exchange by Certified Adviser

- 21.1. The Certified Adviser shall submit to the Exchange a statement of ownership in Issuers towards whom it serves as a Certified Adviser. The initial statement of ownership shall be submitted not later than a day before the first trading day with securities of the Issuer. In case there have been any changes in the ownership, if compared to the previously submitted statement (incl initial, if this was the previous), the Certified Adviser shall submit updated statement of ownership to the Exchange.
- 21.2. The Certified Adviser shall immediately notify the Exchange of any change that affects or may affect the Certified Adviser's ability to perform its function, including, but not limited to:
 - 21.2.1. any changes in members of Management Board and Supervisory Council, the Contact persons and other representatives of Certified Adviser who are involved in functions/tasks of the Certified Adviser;
 - 21.2.2. any circumstances that might give rise to concern regarding the independence of the Certified Adviser or any conflict of interest vis-à-vis the Issuer.
 - 21.2.3. any material information on any initiated pre-trial investigations or any legal proceedings against the Certified Adviser, which might affect its ability to provide the function as Certified Adviser, petitions of insolvency, instituted bankruptcy proceedings, as well as any legal proceedings in connection with fraud or other economic or legal violations, in which members of Management Board or Supervisory Council, the Contact persons or other representatives of Certified Adviser who are involved in functions/tasks of the Certified Adviser are involved.
 - 21.2.4. any other changes or events that might affect/jeopardize fulfilment of the functions of a Certified Adviser or compliance with the Rules;
 - 21.2.5. The Certified Adviser shall report the information stated in the clauses 21.2.1-21.2.4. to the Exchange in the form required by the Exchange.
- 21.3. The Certified Adviser shall notify the Exchange immediately of any circumstances that might necessitate suspension of trading of financial instruments of the Issuer.

22. Certified Adviser's right of supervision

- 22.1. The Certified Adviser shall securely document and store information related to its activities as a Certified Adviser.

- 22.2. The Exchange has a right to monitor the operation of the Certified Adviser to make sure that it completely complies with the requirements set out herein. The Exchange has the right to demand information and documents from the Certified Adviser relating to its activities and obligations as a Certified Adviser or other information necessary for performing supervision, including any information about the Issuer. The Certified Adviser shall, upon request, be afforded immediate access to all such information and documentation that the Exchange deems necessary in order to assess the Certified Adviser and also relevant permission from the Issuer.
- 22.3. The Exchange shall not disclose any information obtained during the performed supervision actions to unauthorised persons, unless otherwise required by law.

V DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

23. Information Subject to Disclose and General Requirements

- 23.1. Under these Rules, Inside Information, Regulated Information and any other information required herein, are subject to disclosure under the terms and conditions set out herein.
- 23.2. For the purposes of these Rules, Inside Information is used in accordance with the meaning provided for in Regulation (EU) No 596/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 April 2014 on market abuse (market abuse regulation or MAR).

For the purposes of these Rules, Regulated Information is used in accordance with the meaning provided for in Securities Market Act (SMA).

- 23.3. Under these Rules, any other information required inter alia by these Rules is subject to disclosure. An Issuer is also obliged to immediately disclose the information of any major changes in its business or other circumstances relating to the Issuer which is not interpreted as Inside Information nor directly specified in these Rules, but which is not publicly available and which may, by virtue of their effect on the Issuer's assets, liabilities, operations or reputation, affect price of its traded financial instruments or the ability of the Issuer to meet the obligations related to the financial instrument and deriving from these Rules.

Issuer is obliged to ensure the disclosure of such information in such a form and within such time limits as specified herein and by means as specified by the Exchange.

- 23.4. In assessment and disclosure Inside Information the Issuer shall be guided by MAR; and in relation to the Regulated Information by SMA.

Other than that, the information disclosed by the Issuer shall be accurate, precise, exact, complete and unambiguous, its contents must not be misleading, and it shall not exclude or omit anything that may affect the subject or significance of the information.

- 23.5. If the situation or events pertaining to information already disclosed by the Issuer have changed, the Issuer shall disclose, without delay, an information regarding such changes.
- 23.6. The Exchange may require that an Issuer provide comments and/or additional information regarding its earlier disclosure of information or the circumstances subject to disclosure by the Issuer. The Issuer shall disclose the information required without delay.

24. Obligation of the Issuer to Disclose Information

- 24.1. The Members of the Management Board and Supervisory Council of the Issuer shall scrutinize on an ongoing basis, within the scope of their competence, all events and changes taking place in the Issuer's operations to assess what information is subject to immediate disclosure in accordance with these Rules.

- 24.2. The Issuer shall consider in its operations that the time of disclosure of information about a transaction/act or event in the Issuer's activity, or otherwise related to the Issuer, does not depend on the performance of any formalities necessary for its occurrence or an event or circumstance to become official. If an event has occurred but all necessary formalities have not yet been settled, or some other circumstances or risks are related, then the respective facts shall be disclosed together with the information to be disclosed.
- 24.3. An Issuer has a right to delay with the disclosure of Inside Information under the conditions and pursuant to the procedure provided by the market abuse regulation (MAR), specifically in Art 17; and ESMA Guidelines thereto¹.

The Issuer shall immediately submit the relevant explanation provided to FSA also to the Exchange.

If the Issuer is of the opinion that the other information, which is not Inside Information, to be disclosed according to these Requirements or required by the Exchange contains the Issuer's business secrets or that disclosure may otherwise damage the interests of the Issuer, the Issuer may apply to the Exchange not to disclose such information. The application presented to the Exchange shall contain the information non published or required by the Exchange and a reasoned explanation by the Issuer of the reasons why the Issuer does not wish to make the information public.

- 24.4. An Issuer is required to ensure that no undisclosed information subject to disclosure is made known to unauthorised persons before such information is properly disclosed.

For the purposes of previous sentence, information is deemed to be properly disclosed, if

- (i) Inside Information is disclosed in addition to disclosure in accordance with requirements of MAR concurrently also through the Information System of the Exchange, and
- (ii) the other information referred to in the clause 23.3 is disclosed through the Information System of the Exchange.

For the purposes of these Requirements, persons authorised to have access to undisclosed information are representatives of the Issuer and Certified Adviser who need such information for the performance of their ordinary professional duties, and persons whose entitlement to such information arises from the legal acts.

- 24.5. The Issuer shall not disclose information subject to disclosure according to these Rules by any means through other channels including in reports, comments, interviews or other means until proper disclosure of such an information, including through the Information System of the Exchange, except in cases when it is prescribed by the law.

¹ In the Issuer's decision to delay public disclosure of inside information the Issuer can follow Guidelines for delaying disclosure of inside information (ESMA/2016/1478).

- 24.6. The Issuer shall ensure that any information the Issuer intends to make available to the holders of its traded financial instruments is properly disclosed not later than it is made available to the holders of the respective securities.
- 24.7. If the Issuer learns that the information, subject to disclosure under these Rules has become available to unauthorised persons prior its proper disclosure, the Issuer shall, immediately, disclose such information in accordance with these Rules.
- 24.8. If, upon the occurrence of the circumstances referred to in Clause 24.7., the Issuer needs additional time to prepare the information to be disclosed, the Issuer shall, without delay, notify the Exchange of the Issuer's intention to disclose information shortly. The notification shall briefly contain a description of the content of the information. If the Exchange is of the opinion that the respective information may cause significant fluctuations in the price of the traded securities of the Issuer, the Exchange may temporarily suspend trading in that security until the Issuer has made full disclosure of the particular information. The Issuer has a right to apply for such a suspension.
- 24.9. The Issuer shall appoint a contact person available to the Exchange who could immediately provide the requested assistance, information or documents, if necessary. The Issuer may agree with Certified Adviser, that a contact person of Certified Adviser will fulfil this obligation, ensuring that this contact person has all relevant information and documentation to ensure immediate and proper assistance. The Issuer shall notify, without delay, the Exchange and the Certified Adviser of substitution (temporary or permanent) of this person.
- 24.10. The Certified Adviser shall exercise its best efforts to ensure the compliance of the Issuer with the requirements regarding disclosure of information.

The Certified Adviser has a right to prior review and/or approval of the information to be disclosed by the Issuer. In such cases, the confidentiality of this information shall be ensured. The Certified Adviser is not directly responsible for the content of the disclosure, unless it has clear and complete information regarding the information to be disclosed.

25. Methods of Disclosure

- 25.1. For the purposes of these Rules, information is deemed properly disclosed when it is made public as a notice through the Information System of the Exchange.
- In case the Issuer publishes such information through other media channels, the information must be disclosed through the Information System of the Exchange at latest simultaneously with making it public through other channels.
- The information should be provided simultaneously to the Certified Adviser.
- 25.2. The Issuer shall disclose information electronically in accordance with the procedure determined by the Exchange.
